1. Violent Theft: highway robbery, 29th April 1674.
The first thing I shall show there is about a Highway on the Highway. Committed by two Highway-Men, the Manner was thus, one standing in an elderly man going from market about five of the Clock in the Evening, near Hyde Park, was taken by two Highway-Men, who had him deliver his Purse for themselves put his hand in his Pockets and pulled out some small money, and some feelings, and told them that were all he had, whereupon they began to swear God that they would make him see.
